KPFK FOLIO

REPORT TO THE LISTENER

Sharon Maeda

KPFK is proud and pleased to announce its newest program with the working title "Challenge," scheduled at 3:30 to 4:15 on the second and fourth Thursdays of the month — changing to every Thursday starting November 6. As the Pacifica — L.A. voice of the community of people with disabilities, it is co-hosted and produced by Mario Casetta, Carol Gill, and Henry Slucki. Mario is known to all KPFK subscribers as Mr. Ethnic — folk dance instructor and folk music enthusiast — and has had a long interest in the experience of oppressed minorities. His consciousness concerning disabilities was enhanced significantly when he had a stroke in 1981. Carol, a clinical psychologist in private practice in the San Fernando Valley, is on the faculty at the University of Southern California in the Department of Occupational Therapy. She has been disabled since early childhood as a result of polio and uses a powered wheelchair. A disability rights' activist, she serves on the Los Angeles County Commission on Disabilities and is a Board Member of the Westside L.A. Chapter of the California Association of the Physically Handicapped. A University of Illinois Ph. D., she works clinically with disabled and non-disabled adolescents and adults. Henry, a behavior analyst at the USC Medical School, in non-disabled and has been conducting research applying conditioning procedures to people with brain injuries. He is President-elect of the Southern California District of the National Rehabilitation Association and is an activist in several civil rights organization, especially the American Association of University Professors. A U.C.L.A. Ph. D. in experimental psychology, he chairs the Certification Board of the Association for Behavior Analysis, an International Organization and serves on the editorial board of several behavior journals.

The program serves as a forum for issues who may someday acquire a disability. It is for persons along with phone-in questions from people with disabilities, their families, and importance to people with disabilities, their friends. It will be a regular part of the program. The hope is to raise listener consciousness and understanding of the traditional ones that have been conditions. Information that will be disseminated to people with disabilities and their families (services to people with disabilities and their families, existing services, scientific and clinical innovations, employment issues).

The program will offer a forum for the free expression of other creative works, especially those of people with disabilities. For example, there are several noted musical groups that will perform live on the air. People will be invited to bring any new products that may be beneficial to people with disabilities.

Physically disabled people represent the largest group of people in the world. At least one out of ten in the United States is disabled. Up to 40 million! Disabled people, individuals, are fighting for civil rights, accessible facilities. Non-disabled are learning, too, to respect the needs of the public who seem to assume all too often that people with disabilities have an inability to think or speak up. In fact, they are capable of doing so.

The program will represent the voices of people who have learned that independence is difficult to achieve. The struggle sometimes means fighting against physical obstacles.

ABILITIES FAIR: Sunday, October 26, 1985, 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM, at the Center as part of the national celebration during the Bicentennial. On this "Independence Day Celebration," a major goal is to promote awareness and understanding of the contributions of people with disabilities to society with contributions in art, culture, and education. The skills, talents, and accomplishments that people with disabilities have to offer will be the focus.

KPFK FOLIO

8:00 WHAT A LONG, STRANGE TRIP—In commemoration of the day that the state of California banned the use, sale and possession of LSD. A nightlong perspective on Dr. Hoffman's curious discovery centering around a concert by those eternal survivors of 60's psychedelia, The Grateful Dead. The program will consist of music and interviews, including two very recent interviews with LSD researcher Dr. Oscar Janiger and CIA expert Martin A. Lee, author of ACID OCEAN: LSD, CIA and the Sixties. Reelation. An interview with Martin A. Lee, author of the recent book on LSD and the CIA, exposing the strange history of this odd partnership that inadvertently created the radical hippie milieu of the 60's. A talk with Bob Young.

9:00 OR, OSCAR JANIGER—The noted researcher chats and speculates with Jay Kugelmann and Bob Young. LSD and its place in the world both during and since the 60's. The future of psychedelia.

10:00 NIGHT OF THE GRATEFUL DEAD—Those noted and notorious purveyors of psychedelic rock and roll, in a recent concert. Something to soothe the Deadheads until Jerry's back on his feet. Taped will either come from KPFK or, the host's private collection.
